

St. Patrick's Day Scavenger Hunt
Answers and or/ Pictures Must be received by Friday,
March 15th by 3:30p.m.
All shamrocks are visible from the sidewalk

1. If you went to see a movie in the early 1900's, the man to thank for that opportunity lived here.
2. At this spot, Mr. Harkness will take your deposit.
3. Looking for a "tiffany window"? Look no further as you will find it here.
4. Thirsty? Early use of this building was for that delicious drink provided by our Holstein friends.
5. If I wanted to buy a stick of dynamite, garden seeds, or a lot of other items in 1888, this was the site of the business that would sell it to you.
6. Truly old school, this place provided lots of the 3 r's.
7. Guys, need new threads? Here was the place to go prior to 1980.
8. In 1921, folks walked from their old place of worship to this "new" building.
9. In the good old days, a lot of merchandise arrived in town at this spot.
10. Farmers cash crops were stored here in the early to mid – 1900's.
11. Need a gallon of paint? Need a new pair of shoes? Need a box of cereal? Up until 1978, you could get it all here.
12. Do something bad in the good old days, you might have ended up here!

Name: _____

Address: _____

_____

Phone: _____

Answers/pictures can be emailed to evansm@quarryvilleborough.com